I. GENERAL COMMENTS:

This year's lockup inspection included detentions from 2019 and 2020. Due to the COVID outbreak a lockup inspection was not conducted in 2020.

In 2019 there were 24 non-secure detentions under six (6) hours and two (2) secured detentions under six (6) hours. There were not any detentions over six (6) hours. In 2020 there were ten (10) non-secured detentions under six (6) hours and two (2) secured detentions under six (6) hours. There were not any detentions over six (6) hours.

The facility and juvenile accommodations were clean. There were ample snacks, water and blankets available for youth. The youth are kept in a separate holding area across the hallway from where adults are housed. There is a constant visual and all youth are within hearing distance of the deputies supervising them.

All paperwork was complete and in order. Corporal Smith has been assigned to this station over four years and his eye for detail has ensured the paperwork is accurate and complete. He is commended for his work; Therefore, there are not any recommendations from the inspection.
