I. GENERAL COMMENTS:

The inspection team asked questions related to this report, toured the facility, and reviewed secure and non-secured logs for Calendar Year 2023.

Regarding questions asked, the inspection team learned when adult and juveniles are brought to the facility, they enter through two different doors clearly marked as Adult and Juvenile. The doors lead in to separate booking areas where there is sight and sound separation. There are no windows between the two rooms. There are no cells in the juvenile area. The area is small enough that supervision of minors in custody is clearly constant. There is a bench in the room where the minors sit while the officer is completing their report. Since the room is small and has only one bench if a male and female juvenile were to be detained at the same time the room could not accommodate separation. The Corporal made it clear there were other arrangements that could be made.

The facility was clean and well kept. The Corporal was very busy but made time for the inspection team and provided everything needed to make an assessment. The six-hour maximum detention sign in the holding area was small and buried within the larger statutory sign. Right after the inspection the Juvenile Justice Commission support staff emailed a copy a larger sign to the Corporal to post. When asked about procedures used for an intoxicated minor the Corporal researched a case in question and provided information about medical attention rendered. The report supported the statement that Emergency Medical Services are called to evaluate the minor. The parents are also called so the minor can be released to the parent.

There was one minor mistake made in the logs but it was immediately corrected when it was pointed out. There were 14 non secure and 2 secured detentions. Charges included criminal threat, assault, robbery, conspiracy to commit a crime, drunk in public, vandalism, felony warrant, resist officer, and attempted murder.
