GENERAL INFORMATION FOR SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANTS (DECEDENT'S ESTATE)

This document provides information intended to answer general questions a self-represented litigant may have about decedent's estate. This is not a complete reference or procedural guide, nor is it intended to take the place of legal advice from an attorney. It is your responsibility to read and comply with the applicable laws, use current forms, and be prepared to present your case.

What is a Decedent's Estate?

A Decedent's Estate refers to all property left behind when a person dies. Probate is one way someone can obtain legal permission to manage a decedent's property. In a probate case, an executor (if there is a Will) or an administrator (if there is no Will) is appointed by the court as a personal representative to collect the assets, pay the debts and expenses, and then distribute the remainder of the estate to the heirs or beneficiaries under the supervision of the court. The entire case may take between 9 months to 1 ½ years, or longer.

Probate is commonly used when a decedent's estate value exceeds $184,500.00*. However, exceptions may exist depending on whether the decedent was survived by a spouse or registered domestic partner, or the type of assets in the estate. These exceptions may allow you to achieve the same result of a formal Probate, but through a more simplified process, listed below.

Court Procedures:	Non-Court Procedures:
Spousal or Domestic Partner Property Petition (JC Form #DE-221) If the surviving spouse/partner is legally entitled to all the property, a Petition for Probate may not be required. For example, a couple that was married for decades may only own "community property," which belongs to the surviving spouse/partner and is confirmed by the court in the spousal property petition case. This form may be found on the Judicial Council's website at www.courts.ca.gov/forms.	Affidavit for Collection of Property without Probate (SDSC Form #PR-132) If you have the legal right to inherit personal property, such as money in a bank account or stocks, and the estate is worth $184,500 or less*, you may not have to go to court. The form listed above is a simplified process you can use to transfer the property to your name. This process CANNOT be used for real property. This form may be found on the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov.
Petition to Determine Succession to Real Property (JC Form #DE-310) If the estate is $184,500 or less*, it may not have to go through the probate process. The successor to an interest in real property, may file a petition requesting a court issue an order determining that they have succeeded to that real property. This process may also be used to order that personal property belongs to the petitioner(s). This form may be found on the Judicial Council's website at www.courts.ca.gov/forms.	Affidavit for Transfer Without Probate California Titled Vehicle or Vessels Only (DMV Form #REG 5) To transfer title of vehicles or vessels belonging to the decedent, a formal probate is not needed. This may be completed directly through the California Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV). This form may be found on the DMV's website at www.dmv.ca.gov.
Affidavit re: Real Property of Small Value (JC Form #DE-305) Real property valued at $61,500 or less* may be transferred without a formal probate. If you need a marketable title to the property, a certified copy of the filed form may be recorded with the County Recorder of the county where the real property is located. This form may be found on the Judicial Council's website at www.courts.ca.gov/forms.	Transfer of Mobile or Manufactured Home For information and links to the forms needed for transferring a mobile or manufactured home, visit the California Department of Housing and Community Development website at www.hcd.ca.gov.
*On April 1, 2022, and at each three-year interval ending on April 1 thereafter, the dollar amounts shall be adjusted based on the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers. Adjustments do not apply when the decedent's death preceded the date of adjustment. Refer to the Maximum Values for Small Estate Set-Aside & Disposition of Estate Without Administration (JC Form #DE-300) to determine the maximum value based on the decedent's date of death.

Need legal advice?:

The court does not provide legal advice or offer assistance with completing these forms. It is your responsibility to do the research and determine which process would be best for your specific circumstances. For more complex estates or estates that may be challenged or contested it may be best to seek legal counsel. If you need help locating an attorney in San Diego County, you may contact the Lawyer Referral & Information Service of the San Diego County Bar Association at their website www.sdcbba.org or by calling (619) 231-8585.

What do I have to file to start an Estate proceeding?

To open an estate proceeding, you first must file a petition and other forms with the court. You must fill out the following forms, available in the Probate Business Office and on the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov:

Included in the Decedent's Estate Packet (SDSC #PKT-057):

- Petition for Probate (Probate-Decedent's Estate) (JC Form #DE-111)
 - Attachment to Initial or Competing Petition for Probate (SDSC Form #PR-198) (Mandatory form, effective 03/01/2024)
 - *Waiver of Bond by Heir or Beneficiary (JC Form #DE-142/DE-111(A-3e))
 - Duties and Liabilities of Personal Representative (Probate) (JC Form #DE-147)
 - *Proof of Subscribing Witness (JC Form #DE-131)
 - *Proof of Holographic Instrument (JC Form #DE-135)
- Forms may not be applicable.

Did the decedent have a last will and testament?

If the decedent had a Will, then they are deemed to have died testate. The Will dictates who the beneficiaries are, as well as who might be appointed as the personal representative of the estate. The original Will and any Codicils (amendments to the Will) must be deposited with the court when an estate proceeding is commenced. A manuscript cover, or stiff backing, is required, as well as a fee for storage of the Will. A copy of the Will and any Codicils must be attached to the Petition for Probate. If the decedent died without a Will, then they are deemed to have died intestate. The Probate Code dictates the line of succession of heirs to which the decedent's estate will pass.

What do I have to do after I fill out the forms?

You may file your documents by choosing one of the following options:

- E-Filing: www.sdcourt.ca.gov/sdcourt/onlineservices/efiling
Refer to Electronic Filing Requirements (Probate) (SDSC Form #PR-188)
- In Person: Probate Business Office, Room 330
1100 Union Street
San Diego, CA 92101
- Mail: Superior Court of California, County of San Diego
ATTN: Probate Division – Room 330
1100 Union Street
San Diego, CA 92101

Helpful Tips:

- ✓ If e-filing, scanned documents must be in a PDF format using Adobe Acrobat version 7 or higher, and must be text searchable (i.e., optical character recognition (OCR)).
- ✓ If e-filing, the original Will must be mailed or dropped off in the Probate Business Office with reference to the filed Petition for Probate (i.e., e-filing transaction number or case number).
- ✓ If filing in person or by mail, a copy of each completed form must be provided.
- ✓ If filing by mail, a self-addressed, stamped envelope must be provided for conformed copies to be returned.

Is there a fee to file a Petition for Probate?

Yes. The current fee amounts may be found on the court's Fee Schedule (SDSC Form #ADM-001), available in the Probate Business Office and on the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov.

What if I don't have enough money to pay the fee?

If you cannot afford the fees, you can request a fee waiver from the court. All the required forms are included in the Fee Waiver Packet (SDSC PKT #010) which is available in the Probate Business Office and on the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov (select Probate, then Forms). If your request is granted, all court related fees will be waived.

BEFORE THE HEARING:

Publication and Notice Requirements:

The Notice of Petition to Administer Estate (JC Form #DE-121) must be published in a newspaper circulated in the city where the decedent lived at the time of death. All persons or entities (such as charities) named in the Will, including each person nominated as executor, and all persons who would be entitled to inherit as heirs by intestate succession (even if the decedent left a Will) are entitled to receive notice of the Petition for Probate.

- Publication:

A copy of the Notice of Petition to Administer Estate must be published three times in the legal notice section of a newspaper of general circulation in the city where the decedent resided. Refer to List of Approved Newspapers for Publication of Legal Notices (SDSC Form #ADM-335). The first publication date must be at least 15 days prior to the hearing with at least five days between the first and last publication (not counting the publication dates). After publication has been completed, an Affidavit of Publication must be filed with the court. Ask the newspaper whether it will file the Affidavit directly with the court or send it to you. It is your responsibility to make sure that the Affidavit is filed, even if the newspaper says they will do it for you.

- Notice Requirements:

Notice must be given by first class mail or by personally delivering a copy to each person or entity entitled to notice at least 15 days prior to the hearing. Each person should receive a copy of the "Notice of Petition to Administer Estate" showing the hearing date information. It is also recommended (but not required) that each person be sent a copy of the Petition for Probate with all attachments. Note: If you are the person who is asking to be appointed as personal representative, you cannot mail the copies but must have someone else who is not a party mail the documents for you. After the copies have been mailed or delivered, the person who mailed the documents must complete and sign the Proof of Service by Mail on the reverse side of the Notice of Petition to Administer Estate.

Order, Letters, and Bond, if applicable:

A proposed Order for Probate and Letters should be submitted prior to the hearing, so that they may be reviewed by the probate examiner. If submitted by e-Filing, an electronic copy will be returned via email after the hearing, if an email address was provided. If submitted in person or by mail, a self-addressed stamped envelope must be submitted, in addition to copies for conforming and return after the hearing. If a bond is required, the original must be submitted to the court. Bonds are not eligible of e-Filing.

- Order for Probate (JC Form #DE-140):

The order appoints the personal representative of the estate and lists the powers and responsibilities granted.

- Letters (Probate) (JC Form #DE-150):

This form serves as the oath of office for the personal representative and may be given to anyone who needs proof that you have been appointed as the personal representative and have authority to act on behalf of the estate. Letters expire 18 months from the date of issuance.

- Bond:

A bond is required of all personal representatives to protect interested persons, including beneficiaries and creditors, against the wrongdoing of the personal representative. A bond is not required if the Will waives the bond requirement, or if all beneficiaries sign a waiver of the bond requirement. The court will ordinarily require a non-resident personal representative to file a bond even if the Will waives bond. If a bond is required, the amount of the bond will be fixed based on the estimated value of the decedent's estate.

Probate Examiner Notes:

Before the court hearing date, a probate examiner will review the filings submitted and make notes for the judge. These notes are referred to as "probate notes." A copy of the probate notes will be available on the online Register of Actions on the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov (select Online Services and then Access Court Records) about two weeks prior to the hearing.

If there are defects (things that are missing and/or corrections to be made), they will be noted by the probate examiner. Ordinarily the defects need to be corrected before the petition will be granted by the judge. Some defects may be corrected by providing an explanation on a Response to Probate Notes form (SDSC Form #PR-177). Contact the probate examiner listed on your probate notes for information on how to correct defects. All corrections must be made at least four court days before the hearing. If defects are noted and have not been corrected before the hearing date, the court may continue the hearing to a later date to allow time to correct the defects.

AFTER THE HEARING:

Probate Referee and Inventory & Appraisal:

At the time of appointment of the personal representative, the Court designates on the Order for Probate the name and contact information for the probate referee to be used in that estate to appraise the total value of the assets. Probate Referees are qualified appraisers who have passed stringent education and testing requirements and are appointed by the California State Controller's Office to act as probate referees for each county. As personal representative, you must complete and sign the front side of the Inventory and Appraisal form (JC Form #DE-160), leaving the line for "Total Appraisal by Referee" blank, but otherwise answering each section. You must send the form to the appointed Probate Referee for completion.

Notice to Creditors and Allowance or Rejection of Creditors' Claims:

As personal representative, you have a duty to notify both known and reasonably ascertainable creditors of the death of the decedent and that you have been appointed as personal representative. Complete and mail the Notice of Administration to Creditors (JC Form #DE-157).

In addition, you are required to notify the Franchise Tax Board of the decedent's death. The Department of Health Services must also be notified, if you know or have reason to believe that the decedent received Medi-Cal health benefits or was the surviving spouse of a person who received Medi-Cal health benefits. If an heir or beneficiary is currently incarcerated or was formerly incarcerated, the California Victim Compensation Board must be notified. If income was earned by the decedent prior to death, personal income state and federal taxes may need to be filed. If you are unsure, discuss your case with a lawyer or Certified Public Accountant.

If a creditor files a Creditor's Claim (JC Form #DE-172), you must review the claim carefully and either allow or reject the claim, in whole or in part, in writing, within 30 days of receiving the claim. Complete the Allowance or Rejection of Creditor's Claim form (JC Form #DE-174). Mail a copy of the Allowance or Rejection of Creditor's Claim form to the creditor. File the original Allowance and Rejection of Creditor's Claim with a copy of the Creditor's Claim attached. If certain criteria are met, the court will also review and either approve or reject the claim.

Final Accounting or Waiver of Final Accounting and Petition for Distribution of Assets:

The personal representative is required to bring the estate to a close within one year after Letters are issued (or 18 months if a federal estate tax return is required). Before the estate can be closed, the personal representative must file a final account, report, and petition for final distribution. The petition will be set for hearing and notice of the hearing to interested persons must be given by completing a Notice of Hearing (Decedent's Estate or Trust) (JC Form #DE-120). This petition may be prepared in pleading format, or local form, First and Final Report of Personal Representative & Petition for Final Distribution (SDSC Form #PR-165) may be used.

Ex Parte Petition for Final Discharge and Order:

Once the court approves the Petition for Final Distribution, you may begin to distribute property to persons entitled to receive said property from the estate. Each person must sign a receipt and all receipts must be filed with the court. Receipts must be prepared on pleading. After distribution is complete, you must request that the court discharge you as the personal representative and exonerate the bond, if one was posted. This can be accomplished by completing and filing an Ex Parte Petition for Final Discharge and Order (JC Form #DE-295/GC-395). There is no fee for filing and this is not set for hearing. Once signed by the Judge, the administration of the is estate is complete.

Publication:

A copy of the Notice of Petition to Administer Estate (JC Form #DE-121) must be published three times in the legal notice section of a newspaper of general circulation in the city where the decedent resided. The first publication date must be at least 15 days prior to the hearing with at least five days between the first and last publication (not counting the publication dates), with proof of same being filed with the court (Prob. Code, § 8120, et seq.).

Notice Requirements:

A copy of the Notice of Petition to Administer Estate (JC Form #DE-121) showing the hearing date must be given to each person or entity entitled to notice by mail or personal delivery at least 15 days prior to the hearing, with proof of same being filed with the court (Prob. Code, § 8110, et seq.).

Having read the above-referenced publication and notice requirements, I hereby request a hearing date, as follows:

- Within 15-30 days from date of filing.
- Within 30-45 days from date of filing.

Probate Examiner Notes:

If the publication and notice or other requirements are not met before the hearing date, the Probate Examiner will enter this as a "defect" on the Probate Examiner Notes. If defects are not corrected before the hearing date, the hearing may be continued to a date exceeding 45 days from the initial hearing date.

Parties are encouraged to review the Probate Examiner Notes and correct any defects with the Probate Examiner at least four court days before the hearing date (SDSC 4.3.3.E & 4.3.3.O) to avoid excessive delays in estate proceedings. A copy of the Probate Examiner Notes will be available two to three weeks prior to the hearing and can be found on the court website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov (click on the Probate tab, then Examiner Notes).

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that I have read the foregoing and confirm the choice made above.

NOTICE: READ PARAGRAPHS A–G BEFORE YOU SIGN

- A. A bond is a form of insurance to replace assets that may be mismanaged or stolen by the executor or administrator (the estate's personal representative). The cost of the bond is paid from the assets of the estate.
- B. A bond may not be required if the decedent's will admitted to probate waives a bond and the court approves.
- C. If the decedent's will does not waive bond, or if the decedent died without a will, the law ordinarily requires the personal representative to give a bond approved and ordered by the court. However, all persons eligible to receive a share of the estate may waive the requirement of a bond. If they all waive bond and the court approves, the personal representative will NOT have to give a bond.
- D. If bond is not ordered by the court, and the estate suffers loss because the personal representative fails to properly perform the duties of the office, the loss or some part of it may not be recoverable from the personal representative. If so, your share of the estate may be partly or entirely lost.
- E. You may waive the requirement of a bond by signing this form and delivering it to the petitioner for appointment of a personal representative or to the petitioner's attorney. Your waiver cannot be withdrawn after the court appoints the personal representative without requiring a bond. However, if you sign a waiver of bond, you may later petition the court to require a bond.
- F. A guardian ad litem or other legal representative with specific authority under law to waive bond must sign for a minor, an incapacitated person, an unascertained beneficiary, or a designated class of persons who are not ascertained or not yet in being. See Judicial Council forms DE-350 and DE-351 and Probate Code section 1003.
- G. If you do not understand this form, do not sign it until you have asked a lawyer (who is independent of the lawyer for the proposed personal representative) to explain it to you.

WAIVER

1. I have read and understand paragraphs A through G above.
2. I understand that before signing this form, I am free to consult with a lawyer of my choice concerning the possible consequences to me of waiving bond.
3. I understand that I do not have to waive bond to allow the estate administration to begin or proceed, or to receive my share of the estate.
4. I WAIVE the posting of bond in this estate by (name of personal representative):

DUTIES AND LIABILITIES OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE and Acknowledgment of Receipt	CASE NUMBER: _____

DUTIES AND LIABILITIES OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE

When the court appoints you as personal representative of an estate, you become an officer of the court and assume certain duties and obligations. An attorney is best qualified to advise you about these matters. You should understand the following:

1. MANAGING THE ESTATE'S ASSETS

a. Prudent investments

You must manage the estate assets with the care of a prudent person dealing with someone else's property. This means that you must be cautious and may not make any speculative investments.

b. Keep estate assets separate

You must keep the money and property in this estate separate from anyone else's, including your own. When you open a bank account for the estate, the account name must indicate that it is an estate account and not your personal account. Never deposit estate funds in your personal account or otherwise mix them with your or anyone else's property. Securities in the estate must also be held in a name that shows they are estate property and not your personal property.

c. Interest-bearing accounts and other investments

Except for checking accounts intended for ordinary administration expenses, estate accounts must earn interest. You may deposit estate funds in insured accounts in financial institutions, but you should consult with an attorney before making other kinds of investments.

d. Other restrictions

There are many other restrictions on your authority to deal with estate property. You should not spend any of the estate's money unless you have received permission from the court or have been advised to do so by an attorney. You may reimburse yourself for official court costs paid by you to the county clerk and for the premium on your bond. Without prior order of the court, you may not pay fees to yourself or to your attorney, if you have one. If you do not obtain the court's permission when it is required, you may be removed as personal representative or you may be required to reimburse the estate from your own personal funds, or both. You should consult with an attorney concerning the legal requirements affecting sales, leases, mortgages, and investments of estate property.

2. INVENTORY OF ESTATE PROPERTY

a. Locate the estate's property

You must attempt to locate and take possession of all the decedent's property to be administered in the estate.

b. Determine the value of the property

You must arrange to have a court-appointed referee determine the value of the property unless the appointment is waived by the court. You, rather than the referee, must determine the value of certain "cash items." An attorney can advise you about how to do this.

c. File an inventory and appraisal

Within four months after Letters are first issued to you as personal representative, you must file with the court an inventory and appraisal of all the assets in the estate.

ESTATE OF (Name): _____	CASE NUMBER: _____
DECEDENT

d. File a change of ownership

At the time you file the inventory and appraisal, you must also file a change of ownership statement with the county recorder or assessor in each county where the decedent owned real property at the time of death, as provided in section 480 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code.

3. NOTICE TO CREDITORS

You must mail a notice of administration to each known creditor of the decedent within four months after your appointment as personal representative. If the decedent received Medi-Cal assistance, you must notify the State Director of Health Services within 90 days after appointment.

4. INSURANCE

You should determine that there is appropriate and adequate insurance covering the assets and risks of the estate. Maintain the insurance in force during the entire period of the administration.

5. RECORD KEEPING

a. Keep accounts

You must keep complete and accurate records of each financial transaction affecting the estate. You will have to prepare an account of all money and property you have received, what you have spent, and the date of each transaction. You must describe in detail what you have left after the payment of expenses.

b. Court review

Your account will be reviewed by the court. Save your receipts because the court may ask to review them. If you do not file your accounts as required, the court will order you to do so. You may be removed as personal representative if you fail to comply.

6. CONSULTING AN ATTORNEY

If you have an attorney, you should cooperate with the attorney at all times. You and your attorney are responsible for completing the estate administration as promptly as possible. When in doubt, contact your attorney.

NOTICE: 1. This statement of duties and liabilities is a summary and is not a complete statement of the law. Your conduct as a personal representative is governed by the law itself and not by this summary.
 2. If you fail to perform your duties or to meet the deadlines, the court may reduce your compensation, remove you from office, and impose other sanctions.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RECEIPT

1. I have petitioned the court to be appointed as a personal representative.
2. My address and telephone number are (specify):
